

Brian Vold, N.P.

Brian earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Iowa and then graduated with a degree in advanced practice nursing from Allen College in 2014. Brian is a psychiatric nurse practitioner who performs psychiatric evaluations and medication management services for children, adolescents, and adults and he sees clients with a wide range of psychiatric diagnoses. Brian's clinical interests include depression, anxiety, posttraumatic stress disorder, social anxiety, autism, ADHD, bipolar disorder, memory concerns, developmental disabilities, substance use concerns, and behavioral difficulties.