

Annette Smick, M.D.

Dr. Smick graduated from the University of St. Thomas College and then the University of Minnesota Medical School. Dr. Smick completed residencies in both child and adolescent psychiatry and adult psychiatry at Mayo Clinic School of Medicine in Rochester, Minnesota and is board certified in treating children, adolescents and adults. Dr. Smick has significant experience working with individuals with anxiety, depression, mood disorders, behavioral problems, developmental transitions, learning concerns, relationship conflict, trauma, personality disorders and other mental health concerns. Dr. Smick is a very empathic, caring, and skilled psychiatrist who has an immense knowledge of psychiatric medication.